

October 21, 2010

This year the Lycée Français de New York celebrates its 75th Anniversary!

Gala 2011 will take place in the spectacular setting of the Park Avenue Armory in New York City on Saturday, February 5, 2011.

Each year, we honor an individual from the French-American community with the Charles de Ferry de Fontnouvelle Award, named after the founding president of the school. This year we are proud to honor renowned French journalist, Anne Sinclair!

Last year's Gala was attended by more than 900 guests and raised $1.5 million for the school. It was the highlight of the social season of the French-American community in New York with the participation of over 50 prominent corporate sponsors. The Gala offers your company high visibility within this international community.

The Lycée Français de New York is a non-profit, private school that enrolls 1,350 students representing over 50 nationalities from pre-kindergarten through 12th grade. Your support of Gala 2011 will enable us to continue to provide an education that both encourages and respects diversity between people and cultures. Proceeds from the annual Gala are used towards various school initiatives. In addition, the proceeds help fund the scholarship program that is currently assisting 24% of our student body.

Please review the enclosed materials for Gala 2011 and kindly indicate your commitment by December 1, 2010. All contributions to the Lycée Français de New York are tax-deductible. Thank you in advance for your consideration and your support of the Lycée Français de New York and Gala 2011.

We hope that you will join us in celebrating our 75th Anniversary Gala which promises to be a memorable event!
