Welcome to the twelfth annual Gala of the Lycée Français de New York. Thank you for joining us tonight as we celebrate our 75th Anniversary, advancing the Lycée's mission to support our children's education today and for the future.

Gala 2011 illustrates our dedication to providing the best possible education in a multilingual and multicultural environment in which we blend a rigorous academic curriculum with a special attention to our students' creative development.

Tonight, we honor Anne Sinclair, noted journalist, with the Charles de Ferry de Fontnouvelle Award. As a leader in the world of news media, Anne Sinclair demonstrates the qualities of investigation, discovery, and insight which we hope to impart to our children. In addition, Anne Sinclair's professional and personal life spans both the French and American cultures further exemplifying the rich diversity and experience found at the Lycée.

On behalf of the Lycée Français de New York community, we would like to thank Anne Sinclair for supporting our school as we continue to grow with over 1,350 students and 50 different nationalities.

We would also like to thank our Gala Co-Chairs: Camille Bidermann-Roizen, Véronique Gabai-Pinsky, Agathe Lerolle, Kelly Rutherford and the Gala Committee for their dedication and hard work in making Gala 2011 a memorable and successful Lycée community celebration.

Bienvenue au 12^{ème} gala annuel du Lycée Français de New York. Merci d'être là ce soir pour célébrer notre 75^{ème} anniversaire et ainsi soutenir le Lycée dans sa mission qui est d'accompagner l'éducation de nos enfants aujourd'hui et demain.

Le Gala 2011 illustre notre engagement à offrir la meilleure éducation possible dans un environnement multiculturel et multilingue, en combinant un programme académique rigoureux et une attention particulière aux talents créatifs de nos élèves.

Ce soir, nous honorons Madame Anne Sinclair, journaliste de renom, en lui remettant le prix Charles de Ferry de Fontnouvelle. Personnalité respectée dans l'univers des médias, Mme Sinclair est un exemple de capacité d'analyse, de curiosité et de ténacité, autant de valeurs fondamentales pour nos enfants. Par sa vie professionnelle et privée, Mme Sinclair incarne, en outre, le lien entre les cultures françaises et américaines : une illustration de la diversité et des expériences vécues chaque jour par nos élèves au Lycée.

Au nom de la communauté du Lycée Français de New York, nous voudrions remercier Mme Sinclair de son soutien à notre école qui ne cesse de grandir avec aujourd'hui 1350 élèves de plus de 50 nationalités différentes.

Nous voudrions aussi remercier les Co-Présidentes de notre gala : Camille Bidermann-Roizen, Véronique Gabai-Pinsky, Agathe Lerolle, Kelly Rutherford et le Comité du Gala pour leur engagement et leur travail, grâce auxquels le Gala 2011 restera un événement inoubliable et réussi pour le Lycée.

ANNE SINCLAIR

Anne Sinclair is a French television and radio interviewer, who hosted one of the most popular political shows for more than thirteen years on TF1, the largest European private television channel. She also covered the 2008 American Presidential Campaign for the leading French Sunday paper, Le Journal du Dimanche, and the French television channel Canal +.

Born in New York in 1948, Anne Sinclair studied in France. She graduated in Politics from Sciences-Po Paris Institute of Political Studies and in Law from the University of Paris. After graduation, Anne Sinclair's first radio hosting job was at Europe 1, one of the leading nationwide radio networks. But it is on television that she gained national prominence and became recognized as one of the premier journalists of France.

In 1984, she created and hosted 7/7, a weekly Sunday evening broadcast news and political show on TF1, with 10 to 12 million viewers weekly – a record number for a political program in Europe. She became one of the most renowned French journalists, and conducted more than 500 interviews over the course of her show's thirteen year run. She won four Sept d'Or, the French equivalent of the Emmy Awards.

She then created the internet subsidiary company for her former employer TF1 and ran it for four years before returning to journalism. In 2003, she launched a cultural radio program, called Libre Cours (Free Rein) on France Inter, the French equivalent of NPR.

She also wrote several political bestsellers: DEUX OU TROIS CHOSES QUE JE SAIS D'EUX (Grasset, 1997) and CAMÉRA SUBJECTIVE (Grasset, 2003).

Anne Sinclair lives in Washington D.C. with her husband, Dominique Strauss-Kahn, Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund since November 2007.

In October 2008, she launched a blog, called TWO OR THREE THINGS FROM AMERICA, which comments daily on American and international political news, and has become one of the top twelve political French blogs.

She is also working on her latest book about American political life.

Anne Sinclair, journaliste réputée de la radio et de la télévision française a animé une des émissions politiques les plus en vue, pendant 13 ans, sur la plus grande chaîne de télévision européenne privée, TF1. Elle a aussi couvert l'élection présidentielle américaine de 2008 pour le Journal du Dimanche et pour la chaîne de télévision française, Canal +.

En 1984, elle a créé 7/7, un programme hebdomadaire couvrant l'actualité et la politique présenté le dimanche soir et regardé par 10 à 12 millions de téléspectateurs, chiffre record pour une émission politique en Europe. Elle est ainsi devenue une des journalistes les plus connues et a mené plus de 500 interviews. Durant ses 13 années à 7/7, elle a gagné quatre Sept d'Or, équivalent français des Emmy Awards américains.

Elle a ensuite créé la filiale Internet de son ancien employeur TF1 dont elle s'est occupée pendant 4 ans avant de revenir au journalisme. En 2003, elle a lancé un programme radiophonique culturel "Libre cours" sur France Inter. Elle a écrit plusieurs best-sellers politiques: DEUX OU TROIS CHOSES QUE JE SAIS D'EUX (Grasset, 1997) et CAMÉRA SUBJECTIVE (Grasset, 2003).

Anne Sinclair vit à Washington D.C. avec son mari Dominique Strauss-Kahn, Directeur du Fonds Monétaire International depuis novembre 2007.

En octobre 2008, elle a lancé son blog, DEUX OU TROIS CHOSES D'AMÉRIQUE sur lequel elle commente l'actualité politique américaine et internationale. Son blog fait partie des douze blogs politiques français les plus lus.

Elle travaille sur son prochain livre sur la vie politique américaine.

Honoring individuals who have made significant contributions to the French-American community

The Charles de Ferry de Fontnouvelle Award was named after Count Charles de Ferry de Fontnouvelle, founding president of the Lycée Français de New York. This award was established ten years ago to honor those individuals who have made significant contributions to the French-American community.

Count Charles de Ferry de Fontnouvelle was born in 1877 on the Ile d'Oléron. A French citizen, he always felt a special affinity for the United States where he spent numerous years with the French Foreign Service, as Consul in Chicago and Consul General in New York. During this period, Charles de Ferry de Fontnouvelle contributed to the French-American community in an exemplary manner, establishing the Lycée Français de New York and becoming its first President, and serving in that capacity until his death in 1956. Charles de Ferry de Fontnouvelle was an Officier de la Légion d'Honneur, a past President of the New York Society of Foreign Consuls, and an honorary member of the New York Society of the Cincinnati Diplomats.

Le Trophée Charles de Ferry de Fontnouvelle a été créé il y a neuf ans pour récompenser les individus qui ont contribué de façon significative à la communauté franco-américaine. Le Comte Charles de Ferry de Fontnouvelle naquit à l'Ile d'Oléron en 1877. Citoyen français, il ressentit rapidement une affinité particulière pour les Etats-Unis où il passa de nombreuses années dans la Diplomatie française, en tant que Consul à Chicago et Consul général à New York. Durant cette période, Charles de Ferry de Fontnouvelle contribua de manière spectaculaire à l'expansion de la communauté franco-américaine en fondant le Lycée Français, dont il devint le premier Président du Conseil d'administration, poste qu'il occupa jusqu'à sa mort en 1956.

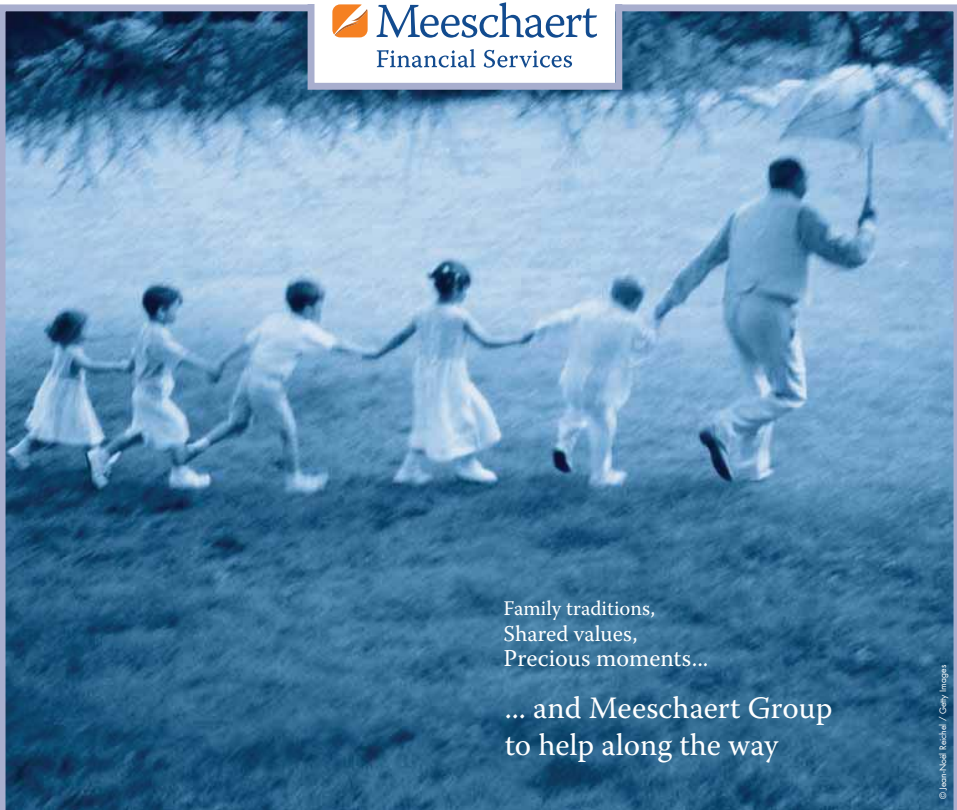

Charles de Ferry de Fontnouvelle était Officier de la Légion d'Honneur, il fut Président de la société new yorkaise de Consuls Etrangers, ainsi que l'un des membres honoraires de la société new yorkaise de Diplomates de Cincinnati.

We would like to acknowledge Cartier's kind donation of the night's award to our honoree, for the seventh consecutive year. Your generosity is deeply appreciated.

The advertisement features a photograph of several ants on a mossy rock, each carrying a small green leaf fragment on its back. The background is a bright blue sky with fluffy white clouds. The text is arranged as follows:

Colas is paving new ways

Colas paves the way... to sustainability.

Colas gives as much importance to environmental realities as it does to human issues. It focuses on preserving the quality of life for neighboring residents, improving comfort for motorists and offering its employees optimized working conditions.

A great number of innovations help support this drive for sustainable development. For example, roads reveal silence with Nanosoft and nature with Vegecol; they cut energy consumption with 3E asphalt mixes and reduce greenhouse gas emissions with Vegeflux.

This is how Colas is opening up new paths, making roads more environmentally-friendly and more people-friendly too.

Colas paves the way... naturally.

The road forward

Superior Management Visibility on IT

Insight for better business performance and lower IT costs

CAST provides executives with actionable intelligence about the IT software that enables their core business processes to be competitive in the marketplace.

With unique technology resulting from $80 million in R&D investment, CAST's flagship product analyzes software and measures the outcomes of custom development for a fact-based dialog between business and IT. Deep, automated structural measurement exposes the sources of IT system cost and risk directly from the software engineering artifacts. More than 250 companies across all industry sectors and geographies rely on CAST to monitor software quality, complexity and risk to improve IT asset productivity.

CAST is listed on Euronext (CAS) and serves large enterprises worldwide with a network of offices in North America, Europe and India. For more information about CAST please visit www.castsoftware.com

AIR FRANCE

SETTING THE PACE FOR THE AIRLINE INDUSTRY

The only airline to be listed on the Dow Jones Sustainability Indexes (European and Worldwide) for the third consecutive year, and a signatory of the United Nations Global Compact, Air France is deeply committed to corporate social responsibility in many forms. Its efforts are focused primarily in two areas: protecting the environment and helping disadvantaged children around the world through the Air France Foundation.

THE ENVIRONMENT

AIR FRANCE IS MANAGING ITS ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT THROUGH...

- > Emissions control programs, such as new measures to speed up fleet renewal
- > New Boeing 777s, which will result in reduction of over 20% of CO₂ emissions and fuel consumption
 - > Supporting the EU's emissions trading system
- > Noise control beyond regulatory demands
- > Resource management
 - > Contribution to environmental protection programs

THE AIR FRANCE FOUNDATION

MAKING A DIFFERENCE WORLDWIDE

- > Supporting programs in education and training that benefit children and young people who are ill, disabled, or disadvantaged
- > Supporting the work of non-profit groups, non-governmental organizations, and projects presented by Air France employees, with financial assistance and other resources

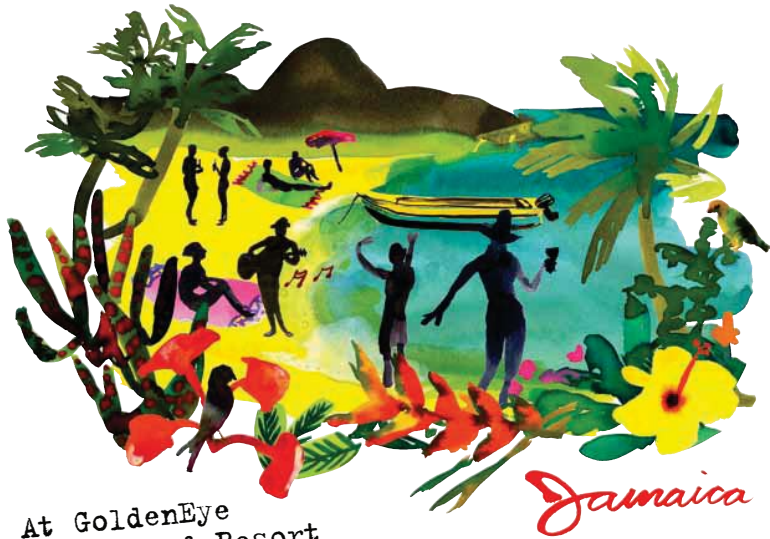

Air France wishes to congratulate Anne Sinclair on receiving the Charles de Ferry de Fontnouvelle Award and to thank the Lycée Français de New York for over 75 years of educational commitment.

NOUS PARLONS UN FRANÇAIS ENSOLEILLÉ!

Venez nous rendre visite.

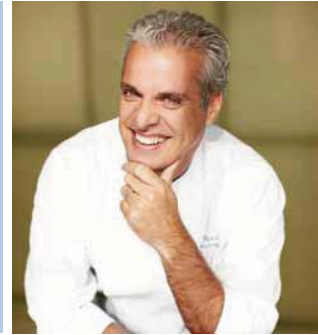

Overlooking the Caribbean Sea in the quiet village of Oracabessa Bay on Jamaica's north coast, GoldenEye was originally the home of British naval officer, Ian Fleming. GoldenEye was named for a secret WWII mission. With Fleming as host, GoldenEye became the island's hot spot—where Hollywood and high society mixed and mingled. During warm, Jamaica days Fleming escaped inside his cool villa. There, he dreamed up the superspy, James Bond, and penned all 14 James Bond novels from his desk that remains there still.

Chris Blackwell, Jamaica-raised founder of Island Records, purchased GoldenEye in 1976. Following a two-year expansion, GoldenEye now encompasses Fleming's original villa, the four villas built by Blackwell, plus nine new Beach Cottages, two new Lagoon Cottages, six new Lagoon Suites, two new restaurants and the FieldSpa at GoldenEye. The stunning 52-acre property remains home to secret coves, breathtaking private beaches, tropical forests and a singular lagoon.

JULES AUDEMARS EXTRA-THIN

The new Jules Audemars Extra-thin watch is equipped with the famous 2120 movement measuring just 2.45 millimeters thick. Developed by the Manufacture Audemars Piguet in 1967, this calibre is considered by many specialists as "the world's most beautiful self-winding movement." Our watchmakers have lavished extreme care on the finishing and decoration, including on the surfaces that remain hidden from sight. You can even choose to personalize the oscillating weight of the winding system - exactly the kind of detail true connoisseurs will appreciate.
